Sheriff raids lounge on 90, eyes 2 others

State DSA to Breland

William E. Breland of Bay St. Louis is one of Mississippi's three outstanding young men for 1967.

His election was announced at the state Jaycees District 1000 Service Awards banquet Saturday night in Hattiesburg. It was the second time in seven years a Bay St. Louis Jaycee nominee has been tapped for state-wide honors. Thomas O. Lopez, Jr., won in 1961.

The other two 1967 winners are Ralph Sovell, Jr., of Jackson, public relations director of Hinds Junior College and a member of the Mississippi House; and Harry C. Griffith of Yazoo City, administration director of Mississippi Chemical Corp. Breland, assistant vice president of Merchants Bank and Trust Co. and manager of its Waveland branch, was chosen from a field of 56 nominees. "I like to tell out of my chair when they called my name," he said.

The Bay winner is now eligible for the 10 Outstanding Young Men of the U.S. competition. He will also be honored at the state Jaycees convention in May.

Jaycees and their wives attending the state DSA banquet were Messrs. and Mrs. Breland, Charles Carter, Jr., Bert Stierfel, John C. Kossner, Larry Breland, James Ginn and Henry Mont.

In line with his vow to prevent unseemly elements from operating in Hancock County, Sheriff Fred Curd closed on U.S. 90 lounge last week and has two others under a 24-hour surveillance.

Curd is now seeking revocation of the liquor permit issued to Mrs. John Seneb of Waveland, for the A-Frame Lounge after seven persons, three men and four women, were arrested there about 10 p.m. last Wednesday. The sheriff and Deputies George Rayburn, Eldo Daprow and Bill Carbonate filed charges after investigating reports that the place was being operated in an undesirable manner.

The women, Jennie Catharine Cantrell, 38, of Marrovo, La., Brenda Ann Bourg, 26, New Orleans; Jacqueline Diane Hazel, 21, and Paulette Marie Pearce, 19, both of Mississippi City, were all heavily made-up and wore brief, tight-fitting mini-skirts and fish net hose.

Woman molester sought by law

As a precautionary measure Sheriff Fred Curd into yesterday asked that all persons on the lookout for a yet unidentified white male with a record of woman molesting along the Gulf Coast from Biloxi to Pass Christian.

The sheriff asks that all suspicious persons be reported to his office immediately they are sighted.

A description of the suspect has recently been circulated by the Mississippi Highway Patrol and is on display in the Sheriff's office.

At the time they were picked up, they were charged with soliciting.

Paul Ralph Henley, Jr., 24, of Central Avenue, Waveland, and Earl W. Brinkman, 22, of Biloxi, were booked after Henley was found in possession of a .32 caliber pistol and Brinkman, with a .38 special service revolver. The third, Johnny "Mack" Patterson, 39, was jailed as a simple drunk, and also charged with having an improper license tag on his car.

Henley, the only one to appear at a hearing before Justice of the Peace Nellus Rhodes, Thursday was fined $100 for possession of a concealed weapon. Five others forfeited bonds, $33 each for collecting; $100 on the weapons charge and $50 on the simple drunk and license fine. Mrs. Bourg posted her $63 bond on Feb. 19, and was released, failing to appear for hearing the following day. Deputies Ronald McClellan and Alton Lumpkin booked those in custody.

Full house in cards for MTF

For the first time in the history of Mississippi Test Facility all operators first and second stage Apollo booster rocket test stand facilities will be simultaneously utilized on March 5.

Involved will be the S-II-4, the S-II-5 and the S-I-C-3. The two S-II-4 are Saturn V/Apollo moon shot repeat coast stage boosters and the S-I-C is a first stage booster for the same rocket.

The recently accepted test stand S-II-4 is now in the vertical hangar at MTF undergoing post static firing quality check-out. It will be returned to the A-8 test stand for proof pressure checks around Feb. 24.

The S-II-5, now on site undergoing pre-static test firing checks, will be moved to the A-8 test stand about March 1. The S-I-C will be moved to the A-8 test stand about March 1 and be ready to stand the S-II-4 on March 5.

Fingerprinting session

Deputy Sheriffs George Rayburn and Alton Lumpkin fingerprint Jacqueline Diane Hazel, one of four women arrested and charged with soliciting last week in A-Frame Lounge on U.S. 90. Two others are Brenda Ann Bourg, second right, and Paulette Marie Pearce.

Claim port job pay too high, nix Hill

Confirmation of Charles Hill, Pearlington real estate developer, as Hancock County's first port director was rejected by the board of supervisors Monday on the basis starting costs were too high.

The motion against accepting the port and harbor commission's recommendation on Hill and his pay came from Beat 3 Supervisor Joseph Cuevas after one to approve his employment by Beat 4 Supervisor J.C. Maufrey failed to get a second.

The port commission earlier had informed the supervisors of Hill's selection and was told to include his salary and expenses in seeking formal approval. At that time Donald Landry, port president, said he hoped they could settle on $12 to $13,000 a year in salary against the $15,000 maximum in the budget and something less than the $7,500 in annual expenses.

However, the final port resolution, apparently unanimous, fixed Hill's pay at the top figure and Supervisors C.A. Russ, III, of Beat 1 and Dolph Kellar of Beat 2 promptly balked when the board got the resolution Monday.

Beat 5 Supervisor Russell J. Elliott, president of the board, admonished his colleagues not to quibble over $2,000 when "you pay for what you get" and at one stage offered to relinquish the chair to move for approval of the port resolution. He cast the lone dissenting vote against Cuevas' motion to reject the present proposal after Maufrey's failed.

The port plan made Hill's employment effective Feb. 5, required commission approval of any expenses topping the $7,500 a year figure and provided for him to serve at the will of the commission. Gerald Cox, one of the port attorneys, said he "stood Hill preferred to work under contract and explained neither port lawyer attended the meeting on hiring the port director because they were requested not to be present.

Gregory retires from power post

A.H. Gregory, manager of Mississippi Power Co.'s Bay St. Louis operations for 26 years, has retired and Porry F. Gibson of Richton has been named his successor.

The changes were announced last week by F.C.C. Brook, division manager for the company at Gulfport. Gregory, manager here since Feb. 1, 1942, is retiring after more than 26 years of service in the electric industry. A native of Bay Springs, La., he joined the utility industry Oct. 4, 1927, and worked in Mobile, Ala., New Orleans, La., and Bay St. Louis.

He is a past president and director of Richton Rotary Club; past chairman of the Porry County chapter, American Red Cross; member of the Porry County Area Development Committee and senior trustee of the Richton Municipal Separate School District board of which he served two terms as (Cont. on Page 7-A.)

the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and a life member of First Baptist Church which he has served as treasurer for 16 years.

Gibson has been local manager of Richton for 23 years. A native of Forest, he joined Mississippi Power in April, 1940. During World War II, he served on a captain in the Army Air Corps and took part in four major campaigns in the Pacific theater.

Study right of way

Beach road snarls, loan up to voters

The beachfront road repair ran into another stumbling block this week when it developed that the board of supervisors must give 15 days legal notice to the voters of its intention to borrow $100,000 from the bank to finance its share of the $422,180 project.

Supervisor C.A. Russ, III, of Beat 1 brought the matter to the board's attention and Joseph Benvenuti, board attorney, confirmed that the supervisors must give public notice in three weeks' publications to allow opponents of the plan to register objections. The county can't borrow the same way the school board can, he observed.

On Russ' motion, Benvenuti was directed to draw the necessary legal notice and fix the deadline for protests at the earliest possible date so the county doesn't lose the $160,125 in repaying federal funds for repairs. Russ noted that even if there is no protest, it will take time to validate the notes and other technicalities. Dolph Kellar, Beat 2 supervisor, commented if they didn't get moving, work might not start until fall.

The State Highway Department and Federal Bureau of Public Roads advised the board in mid-January it was ready to advance for bids on the Hurricane Beach damage as soon as the county had the share of the money. Because there is insufficient money in the road protection bond fund to put up the county's $868,028 cash deposit, supervisors voted Feb. 5 to borrow $100,000 from Hancock Bank on a 120-day loan at four per cent simple interest and to notify highway authorities to start scolding bids.

Another obstacle developed from Beat 5 Supervisor Russell J. Elliott's request to notify beachfront property owners to clear the county's right of way. Plans of County Engineer George Wor for the road repairs indicated rights of way vary from 36 to 26 feet inland from the center of the beach road on Arthur Rogers, as indicated on a map, caught Benvenuti's advice on what announcements and rights of way the county actually has.

Elliott said he had instructed his road crew to start moving chairs and the like off the right of way, understanding it is generally 36 feet from the beach. He said he would want to have the beachfront moved to move chairs and any plants they want moved. Supervisors have been advised they may get a more favorable price on the road if bidders have a cleared right of way on which to work.

Efforts toward beautification of the beachfront area were reported by Elliott. He said the quickest way to dispose of the heavy grass growth on the hillside appeared to be to burn it with fire equipment standing by. Mrs. Joseph Vigorello, president of Bay-Waveland Garden Club, has indicated she may be able to get volunteers to ask beachfront owners to clear old pier pilings in front of their property, he added. Supervisors held over to their March 4 meeting a resolution requested by Rep. Walter J. Phillips asking the Game and Fish Commission to establish a game management program in Mississippi Test Facility's buffer zone and a wildlife refuge in its fee zone. Phillips explained St. Regis and International Paper Co., major (Cont. on Page 7-A.)

Public's right to know is vital

Among the many pieces of legislation now pending before the Mississippi Legislature is one of particular interest to newspapers and radio and television. It is the so-called "Right to Know" measure similar to that in many other states.

This legislation, with minor exceptions, would prohibit all deliberative bodies from having executive sessions. This is seldom a problem in Hancock County but in other Mississippi counties the executive sessions are frequently held.

The title of "Right to Know" stems from the fact that news sources cannot report to their readers when they are barred from the proceedings.

As stated above, there has been little current need for this legislation in Hancock County. Meetings of our boards are usually open but it is needed legislation elsewhere. When the public has no way of knowing what is happening in its governing bodies, and that is what this bill would try to prohibit, the chance that some inimical action will take place is greatly increased.

A Conservative View

by James J. Kilpatrick

WASHINGTON - From the beginning of this second session of the Congress, more than 100 ago, the Senate has been bogged down in a filibuster over H.R. 2516, the pending civil rights bill. Now it is proposed that a desultory debate and voting should take place.

No one has paid much attention to the bill, and for a good reason: The measure is universal recognized, by knowledgeable people in the field, as one of an exercise in politics. A sound proposal in the Senate in the political view, a proposition has no merit. Pending bill will not satisfy activists; they will view it as one case of beer or a picnic.

But if the bill is poor as a matter of policy, it is much worse as a matter of law. It is little, one supposes, to argue that the measure goes beyond the power vested in Congress under the 14th and 15th Amendments, and hence unconstitutional. In the field of civil rights, the Constitution is more than solid ground.

Nevertheless, the constitutional point should be noted. The chief thrust of this bill against private actions, not against state actions. For the better part of a century, it was recognized that the 14th Amendment is a limitation upon the States as such, that is, that the amendment says: "No State shall..." Yet this bill undertakes to punish the white man who abuses a Negro in the nose, because a Negro, is, let us say, try to exercise his right to attend a University of Alabama.

Now, virtually no one—not even George Wallace—any longer seriously questions the Negro's right in this regard. The right has been established, no State may deny it; various state and court orders make the right secure. The pending bill thus is not directly concerned with integration or voting rights or public accommodations. It is concerned with the punch in the nose.

The question has to be asked: How did a punch in the nose become a Federal crime? Whatever the motivation, a punch is a punch; it is assault, and a decent respect for federalism ought to persuade the Senate that the punishment of simple assault is peculiarly a matter for the States.

Look again at this bill and the punitive punch. Under the terms of this proposal, for mistyifying reasons, the puncher and the punchee must be of different races. Otherwise the bill does not apply. If Negro A strikes Negro B, in the midst of a brawl over the lawful exercise of a civil right, no offense is created. The white man who punches a Negro Brown may be indicted for felony; the Negro who punches a white man, under the same circumstances, is exempt. One is reminded of the Animal Farm, in which the animals were equal—but some were more equal than others.

This discriminatory scheme is defended by the bill's proponents. The real evil, they say, lies in such crimes as the shooting of James Meredith and the slaying of Medgar Evers. This is all they are seeking to reach. They argue, moreover, that the South's record of clearing such crimes of violence is so poor that Congress must intervene.

In certain notorious cases of inter-racial violence, granted, Southern justice has functioned poorly. But one is minded to ask why the Congress is not equally concerned about the much larger failure of justice elsewhere in the country? Murder is the most serious of all crimes. Nearly one out of four murders in New York goes unpunished. The figure is one out of eight in Michigan and Illinois. By contrast, Mississippi stands second only to South Dakota in the high percentage of murders presumably solved.

North Carolina's Senator Sam Ervin has recalled the Till case. An ugly, awful business. Yet in the same week that Till was drowned in Mississippi, a white man was slain in Chicago by machine-gun fire, stripped, and brutally mutilated. Neither homicide was solved at law. The point is not that the two victims were equally dead, or equally mourned. The point is that they were equally victims of local crime, locally committed. If federalism is not to be abandoned altogether, the distinction ought to be carefully preserved.

Jackson report

By Rep. Lonnie Smith

The House of Representatives, at the prompting of the Speaker, lengthened the schedule of committee meetings last week to allow more time for work in committee. The House convened each afternoon at 4 rather than at the usual 2 p.m.

Intensive study is being made in the Ways and Means Committee on all proposals for increases in tax revenues to meet the demands for additional appropriations. The Education Committee will continue hearings on the bill designed to implement the governor's educational program. Every effort is being made to complete consideration of the measure this week and prepare a report to the House. Once the committee leaves the bill it will be placed on the House calendar and can be called up for floor action at any time.

The bill introduced last week would impose a 1 cent tax on soft drinks. The proposal has been made at earlier sessions but never reached the floor for action. Soft drinks are now subject to the sales tax but the suggested tax would be in addition to the regular 4-1/2 percent based on gross sales. There have been much talk for and against the tax and it is expected to become a hotly contested issue as the search for revenue continues.

During the last two weeks the House passed several bills designed to amend present statutes relating to county election commissions. The measures provide for election of a five-member commission. The body would be composed of voters of the county-at-large but each elector's vote would be weighted by one of its residents. A motion was introduced for decision on ordering basic election in the main-up of the three-member appoint commission.

Editor, Sea Coast Echo
I certainly agree with your editorial of Feb. 8, 1968—"Unpleasant but it needs saying"—regarding city clean-up.

I have many pleasant memories of the Bay, but on my return visits, almost each year to visit my family, the Henry (adaptons, I wonder why there are so many unkept yards, etc. I am sure with very little effort many homes and yards could look as nice as Mr. Strong's. It appears that the citizens have lost old-fashioned pride traditional of Bay residents.

Sincerely,

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

That ad in your last issue by the publicity committee for the public utility bond issue was a dilly. It labeled the voters in their proper categories: P-P (progress promoters) P-K (progress killers).

Mr. Editor two dozen more ads like Gerry Lane Chevrolet's will give the people for progress (P-P) enough places to spend their money wisely.

It was with much amusement I read the account "no more Federal money to schools."

Still laughing, I wish to report:

So this is equal job rights - still laughing.

MARIA MARTIN

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

The present city administration has had four terms, the confidence and support of the people, full payment of ever higher taxes and has no real progress to show. Our neighboring communities have progressed and Waveland has put us to shame. We have a wonderful climate, environment and location but our present administration has led us backward. The simple job of construction of a sewer system was too much for them and it became a major disaster. More than $3 million in bonds and most of us wonder if even the sewer job is complete. Is it still under construction or already being repaired -- look at the constant digging.

This bond issue was defeated once but they want another vote on the same thing. Have they no other solution? Are the city father's public servants or public rulers? We must vote NO again on March 5. Why couldn't we vote at least once on the Committee, of which I am a member. Two other bills of interest, one to change the absentee voting laws, and another to require investment of idle state funds, have been referred to committees for study. Of course, other bills have been introduced but space only permits mention of those in which I feel you might have particular interest.

Council-Manager Issue - Does a proper petition properly presented mean anything to them?

We all know we need paved streets. We need good drainage. We need a library, a pier. We should have parks and playgrounds, better sanitation. We also sorely need good leadership! All the money in the world without intelligent leadership won't solve our problems.

I'm voting no and encouraging everyone else to vote no on March 5. There must be a better solution than merely turning over a million dollars to those who have already proven their inability.

A. K. MARTINOLICH SR.

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

It is my sincere hope that the citizens of this community will vote AGAINST the bond issue on March 5. I believe that the members of the City Council's advisory committee would not have recommended such a proposal at this time if they had seriously taken into consideration certain facts which I am at this time calling to the attention of the voting public.

First, let us take a look at what other communities have done.

The following is a conclusion reached by none other than the Associated Press after making a nationwide survey just a few months ago:

"Communities across the nation are finding it expensive to borrow money to build schools, roads, and sewers. High interest rates in the municipal bond market are forcing some to postpone projects."

Second, let us see what the people who deal in bond buying have found in their study of present conditions:

The "Daily Bond Buyer", a trade newspaper that follows local bond issues, reports that at least 12 communities (in two weeks only) postponed $88,300,000 in borrowings in late September and early October (1967) because of the crush of high interest rates.

In many areas local governmental units are failing to even get a bid on bond issues.

Third, let's take a hard look at what the City Council and their advisory committee are asking the voters of Bay St. Louis to do.

They have recommended a proposed expenditure of almost a million dollars, and other business firms and individuals have subsequently recommended its approval. BUT LET US NOT FORGET THAT THESE PEOPLE ARE ACTUALLY ASKING THE GENERAL PUBLIC TO PAY TWICE - A TOTAL OF $2 MILLION - LARS - FOR IMPROVEMENTS AT THIS TIME!!! WE CANNOT AFFORD TO DO SO.

We cannot afford to be different from those municipalities who are postponing their public works programs. Let us postpone ours. It could be a profitable delay.

WARREN CARVER
Bay St. Louis.

EDITORS NOTE: Of course, if Bay St. Louis can't sell its bonds at a suitable rate, then that ends the issue. However, as high as the interest rate is on bonds those days, there is no assurance that it will get better. Furthermore, the cost of construction of this type is going up 6% or more yearly. Postponing this work now probably would cause increased expenses as well as being bad for the city of large. We wish we could still get a penny post card, but those days are gone!

Capitol story

By Rep. Walter J. Phillips

The last week of the legislative session was rather uneventful from the point of view of floor action taken, however much work was done in committees.

The House began meeting at 4 p.m., which gave time for committee work all during the day. A day which is not quite typical, but which is indicative of the type of action being taken, was last Thursday when the writer of this column was in the Capitol Building at 8:30 a.m. for preliminary work prior to a committee meeting at 9 and this being Judicial "A" committee, and finally left the Capitol Building at 6:30 p.m. after a Rules Committee meeting called for an after adjournment.

Much work has been done both in the Ways and Means Committee and in the Education Committee on the governor's program for the improvement of education. There have been varying estimates as to the cost of this program, but a conservative estimate appears to be that the cost of the common school program, this being the high school and grammar school program, coupled with the program for junior colleges and institutes of higher learning, will require the raising of an additional one hundred million dollars. All sources of revenue will be examined in the search for this additional revenue.

The revenues to the state are somewhat limited due to the fact that the federal government has almost entirely pre-empted the fields of income and estate taxation, leaving the states very little latitude in these fields. Proposals have been introduced which would include a withholding tax provision on income, and tax corporations 12 percent and individuals 10 percent on the amount paid to the federal government in federal income tax. While this would result in a simplified return for the taxpayer, and result in the neighborhood of an additional fifty million dollars, it is estimated that it would result in the need for tripling the income tax division, resulting in additional expenditures.

At the present time there are approximately 110,000 thousand people paying individual income taxes to the State of Mississippi, and under the proposal of the new bill this tax would be broadened and would result in approximately 532,000 tax payers in the income tax field.

Additional taxes have been suggested in the sales tax field which would result in the increase of the Sales Tax from three and half to 4 cents and the removal of certain exemptions, notably on feed, seed, fertilizer, and on purchases made by Rural Electric Assn. co-operatives.

Other measures have been introduced a ways of setting additional funds and studies are being made as to the amount of return which can be expected. However, preliminary information has revealed that the amounts of money to be obtained from these other sources are quite small in comparison to the taxes heretofore mentioned.

It might be noted that the return from the Alcohol Beverage Control Board shows that slightly under one million dollars a month is being realized as profit. These monies of course are being channeled into the General Fund and will result in some money over and above the amount estimated by the Budget Commission. It is not believed that any

Peace unlikely by November

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON - Despite Prime Minister Wilson's statement that only a narrow gap remains to be bridged to get Vietnam peace talks started, and UN Secretary General Thant's efforts, any meaningful negotiations still appear highly unlikely before November's elections.

There is no question that President Johnson wants them. The war has crippled his prestige, his program, his popularity, his party. Every consideration demands that it be brought to an end as soon as possible.

The president's almost desperate eagerness for peace has led him to welcome every reported scolar from Hanoi, whether it came from official or unofficial sources. More than 20 such scolar have been explored. But they all collapsed in Hanoi when Ho Chi Minh refused to make the slightest concession that clearly is required if any compromise is to be reached. And any compromise does demand that each side give a little.

The success of the recent communist offensive in South Vietnam, and the indications that the South is viewed as another possible Dien Bien Phu, make it clear that Ho Chi Minh is not about to start peace talks.

Militarily, he has demonstrated that the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese can still operate with great effectiveness throughout South Vietnam; that half a million US troops plus the South Vietnamese actually control little of the territory or the population of South Vietnam; and that all the bombing of North Vietnam has hardly dented his ability to keep the war going.

Politically, he is still convinced that President Johnson will not be re-elected in November, and that war weariness in the United States will induce his successor to give him what he wants. He has said this repeatedly to neutral diplomats.

As we have noted previously, US popularity in Vietnam has never been great and it drops further almost daily. To the South Vietnamese, we are not only supporting an unpopular military regime but we are ourselves destroying their homes and their businesses far more than the Viet Cong. On top of this, we have now devastated the ancient capital city of Hue with all its historic treasures. Even Hitler usually spared such treasures in World War II.

Thus, the North Vietnamese, as they have said again and again, remain confident that time is on their side; and their recent successes, plus the miscalculations of our strategists in the Pentagon, can only make them more certain than ever.

Casualty estimates

Figures issued by Gen. Westmoreland's headquarters on recent enemy casualties illustrate how wild those estimates can be. A US spokesman in Saigon claimed that 30,795 communists were killed in the first 12 days of their offensive, and 5,278 captured. It usually is calculated that the enemy suffers three men wounded for each man killed, which would indicate total enemy casualties of around 120,000. However, official estimates were that the total communist force engaged in the fighting was only 60,000 men--which means that they killed or wounded two men for each one fighting, an obviously ridiculous projection.

Many of the casualty figures, of course, come from the South Vietnamese military; and the South Vietnamese, if not our own officials, clearly must be somewhat less than accurate in their reports.

Nuclear weapons in Vietnam

Secretary of Defense McNamara has stated flatly that the use of nuclear weapons in Vietnam has never been considered by the administration.

We can report, however, that while President Johnson has refused to entertain such proposals, they have been discussed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The joint chiefs are anxious to try out tactical nuclear weapons, which never have been tested in battle. But the bombs are "dirty," would cause high radioactivity, and present grave problems for South Vietnamese civilians as well as our own troops. In addition, their use would bring about as great a worldwide revulsion as use of poison gases. Hence, the president is adamant against even testing them in Vietnam.

It is our understanding that the mysterious trip to Saigon by Dr. Richard Garwin, the nuclear expert, was not in connection with the use of tactical nuclear weapons, but secret devices of the McNamara Line, the electronic barrier below the demilitarized zone which McNamara proposed but whose workings remain top secret.

Adam's Jaguar gathers dust

Adam Clayton Powell departed from Congress over a year ago, but his Jaguar sports car is still reposing in the Congressional garage.

Once a flashy showpiece with Adam at the wheel, the car is now covered with dust, the battery is dead, the tires deflated like Powell's career.

Meanwhile, Adam is still fishing in the Bahamas and doesn't seem to care. He may, however, after a grand jury report on his financial hi-jinks.

Bad news for Shriver

Eugene Kowalski of the National Confederation of American Ethnic Groups has warned Mayor Daley of Chicago that if Sargent Shriver runs for governor of Illinois or US Senate, the Poles, the Italians, and other ethnic groups will do their best to defeat him.

Kowalski is irked at Shriver because he used anti-poverty money to help Negroes rather than other groups in Chicago, Milwaukee, Detroit, and Gary, Ind.

There are almost as many Poles in Chicago as there are in Warsaw, and if they oppose Shriver it would be a very serious political handicap.

DeGaulle's Canada

Last year when President de Gaulle visited Montreal, he astounded his Canadian hosts with the slogan "Vive le Quebec Libre." "Long Live the Free Quebec." Reaction to his support of an autonomous Quebec was so critical that De Gaulle cut short his visit and went home.

But since then he has continued quietly working for free Quebec, setting up a special bureau in Paris directly under his own office to receive Canadian separatist leaders. He has also diverted $2.5 million from African cultural affairs to French-Canadian culture and is talking about a loan to Quebec. Meanwhile, the prime ministers of the ten Canadian provinces have not to consider French-Canadian demands for more autonomy. Among other things, French-Canadians want the French language to be spoken as far away as British Columbia, where no one at all speaks French. Yet they demand that the French language be officially used and recognized. Prime Minister Lester Pearson has gone a long way to meet the French-Canadian demands. He believes the strength of Canada is in unity, and if it's divided into two parts, this ally of the United States will also be weakened.

This is exactly what De Gaulle wants. He figures that Canada is the No. 1 ally of the United States, and if he can weaken this ally, it will also weaken the United States.

So you can expect that De Gaulle will continue his drive to separate Canada into two parts, as part of his drive to downgrade the United States wherever, whenever, and however he can.

The loner

A report from Sharika, Colorado, the other day said the new woman mayor there worked no time in cleaning up city hall.

Action will be taken on major tax measures toward financing the school program during this next week, however action should be had within the next two or three weeks.

After Mrs. Joan Reichenbach had been in office three minutes, she fired the police chief, dismissed the judge, the city attorney, the city manager, the traffic clerk, the street sweeper, and the city clerk. She then appointed a new administration. (Associated Press)

134th unit due personnel hike

The overall enrollment of the 134th Transportation Co., headquartered at Bay St. Louis, will increase as the result of reorganizational changes now taking place within the Mississippi National Guard.

Across the state it will mean a reduction of about 800 personnel and the loss of 93 units. The move will be completed by Feb. 19 and will result in an increase from a present state-wide operational strength of 60 per cent to one of 98 per cent, according to Maj.-Gen. Walker G. Johnson, adjutant general.

A unit of the 134th Transportation Battalion of Biloxi, the local group will be known officially as the 134th Light Medium Truck Company. Commanded by First Lt. Lionel Eleuterius its official strength will now be five officers and 180 enlisted men. The first platoon, and maintenance section, under Second Lt. Francis J. Lawrence, will be stationed at Wiggins, the second platoon, under Second Lt. Otis W. Wyatt will be located at Pascagoula and the third platoon, under Second Lt. Jeffrey L. Boudouin at Bay St. Louis. VOTE NO

Once again we're approaching the final week of carnival, the 40th anniversary of the French Market. In the past, the carnival has been a time of fun and games, but this year it's a time of reflection. We're looking back at the things that have made this city what it is today. We're looking at the people who have built this city and the things they have done for us. We're looking at the things that have made this city a place where we can all live and work together in peace and harmony.

Denizens plumb the deep

Members of the Deep-sea Carnival Club held Friday night of Bay-Waveland Yacht Club. King Neptune VII, none other than John McDonald, appeared right on schedule in his royal barge, to be greeted by a host of children of the harbor, representing every coast of marine life from busy fish to the deep-sea creatures. The Captain of the ship, in a speech, said that the carnival was a time for the people to come together and enjoy the things that make this city what it is today. He said that the carnival was a time for the people to come together and enjoy the things that make this city what it is today. He said that the carnival was a time for the people to come together and enjoy the things that make this city what it is today.

Nereids march in Rainland

In the best show-must-go-on tradition the Nereids marched just a bit behind schedule Sunday afternoon during the almost day-long carnival which ended just in time to allow a few rays to gleam as King Martin Martini tossed his lovely queen from the revolving chair in front of City Hall. Also in the stand were Queen Doris I and the maids of her 1957 court, ladies of both years and town officials.

Several bands decided not to risk pneumonia in the icy winds but those who came on stage for the carnival in the city of the Nereids. The carnival was a time for the people to come together and enjoy the things that make this city what it is today. The carnival was a time for the people to come together and enjoy the things that make this city what it is today. The carnival was a time for the people to come together and enjoy the things that make this city what it is today.

In same theme

Before we leave the Carnival theme, our old pals learned that Carnival ends this night on the 10th. The carnival was a time for the people to come together and enjoy the things that make this city what it is today. The carnival was a time for the people to come together and enjoy the things that make this city what it is today. The carnival was a time for the people to come together and enjoy the things that make this city what it is today.

Around town

With the carnival theme, the carnival was a time for the people to come together and enjoy the things that make this city what it is today. ## FACTS AND FIGURES

for BLACK TOPPED STREETS & DRAINAGE

WHY and HOW the reduction from the original estimate of $1,640,000 to $975,000?

HOW--- By eliminating the following work from the contractors bids and handling it with city work crews. (with some assistance from county)

- Relocating of existing gas and water lines. Commissioner Glover states that he has gone over this work with the engineer and can take care of this with his present crew.
- The reshaping of street ditches, replacing driveway culverts, rebuilding driveways, etc. This is the toughest problem for the city to handle but it can and will be done. A crew will be assigned to this work on a scheduled basis and not interrupted.
- Cleaning and shaping existing drainage outfalls, such as canals, natural drains, etc.

WHY-- Because a Bond Issue of $1,640,000 would require a Front Foot Assessment. For an over-all program such as this that will benefit the entire City a front foot assessment was not considered the fairest method by the city fathers or the Citizens Advisory Group. It would be just fine if the City could leave work items A, B and C in the job for the contractors to take care of but it was strongly felt that a considerable reduction in total outlay was needed. The most logical way to accomplish this is described above in items A, B and C.

What work will be accomplished with a Bond Issue of $975,000?

All street work will include a sub-surface foundation and a finished riding surface designed for 20 years of service with a minimum amount of maintenance. (See map)

All drainage culverts located at street intersections, cross-overs, etc., will be of the proper size and at the correct elevation to accommodate future sub-surface drainage.

ALL MAJOR DRAINAGE OUTFALLS will be constructed as originally planned.

Let's shape up this town and get moving again

OUR RISE AS A MANUFACTURER BEGAN WITH...

BAKING POWDER!

How come?

Young George Hartford thought the price of baking powder was too high.

So he hired a chemist, made his own the very best - and sold it at an unheard of low price.

That was in the 1880's.

That was the first step in developing what today is a long and respected line of manufactured products.

And every one is produced with just one thought:

To give you the very best for the least amount of money.

Can you be sure they're the very best?

We guarantee it - without question.

Are A&P Brands a good reason for shopping A&P?

They're one of many.

$5 million sub-let by GE at MTF

Subcontracting activity with a total value of more than $5 million, involving firms in seven states was carried out by the Mississippi Test Facility Department of General Electric Co. during the six month period ending Dec. 31, 1967, according to Harry C. Cox, manager of subcontract management for the GE department.

The subcontracts, for technical and specialized services and equipment, are in connection with the operation of NASA's Mississippi Test Facility for which GE is prime contractor for operational, maintenance and technical support.

Now subcontracts let with 22 firms during the period were for such diverse services as plant maintenance, engineering support, food service and security. Largest of the subcontracts is with Allied-Worth Co. of South Gate, Calif., for installation, alteration and repair services involving components, facilities and complete systems. The work has a value of $799,470.

Fifteen of the 22 firms with whom General Electric executed subcontracts during the period are classified as small business organizations. Twelve are located in Mississippi and five in Louisiana.

During the full calendar year 1967, GE-MTF logistics personnel purchased equipment and materials for MTF having a value of $6.2 million, according to William H. Price, manager of purchasing and stores. These funds were expended for 40,049 items through 20,833 purchase orders. Many of the items and much of the material used at MTF is acquired from firms in the surrounding areas and adds to the over-all economic impact of the site on nearby communities.

new selection goes on sale each month. Some are complete in a single volume; others, because of the great number of pages are bound in two volumes; in no case are there selections of more than three volumes. Advance announcements describing the contents of each selection will be made through newspaper advertising and circulars distributed in the store. As each selection is offered, decide whether or not you want to purchase it. Obviously, you may not be interested in books on subjects you already have in your present library. That's why, although all of the volumes are uniformly bound, we do not number them as you will usually find in the case of sets that contain a large number of volumes.

Thus, you can now build a library covering all areas of knowledge and entertainment selecting only those in which YOU have a personal interest—all in exquisitely matched deluxe bindings—at a price that is only a fraction of the amount you'd pay for the same books in the publisher's ordinary editions.

We realize that the time you spend at a supermarket is limited and we do not permit too careful scrutiny of the books themselves.

Therefore, we are making available to you a 10-day full return privilege on any book you purchase. This will enable you to take the book home with you—look it over at your own convenience—show it to the other members of your family to see if they concur with your decision—then, if any one concerned is not delighted with the idea of owning the book, simply return it to the store and receive a complete refund.

Golden basketball is bait in girl's AA championships

Pretty girls and good-looking basketball. That's what is offered every week in Bay High's year-old Tigerdom. On the Class AA girls' basketball tournament between eight of the teams south of Jackson, four will journey to Jacksonville next week to compete with the North's top four, the far-reaching golden basketball symbolic of the State AA girls' championship. The two representatives of District 8, Bay High and Pass Christian, were in for trouble last night.

Pass Christian met South Pike, defending champion, while Billy Sills' Tigerettes had to overcome Tigee to remain in the race. The winners will be assured of a berth in the state tournament next week but will face even tougher competition Friday, the winner of the Bay High game meeting either South Jones or Morton and the Pass Christian-South Pike winner meeting either Northeast Jones or Canton.

South Jones has defeated Bay High twice this year but the Tigerettes are fired up looking for revenge and could go all the way. In addition to three all-district, all-conference players, Sherry Dean, Ann Perkins and Sally Porter, Sills has two good seniors, either one capable of taking state honors but they will face better teams this week than ever before and in addition to skill on the boards its going to take plenty of courage and fortitude to see them through. Billy Anderson's Pirates, although beaten four times this year by Bay High, also have a chance and boast four All-district players, Jonny Ladner, Rita Marshall, Meredith Smith and Marilyn Cuevas. Tonight's games are: 7 p.m. South Jones vs. Morton; 8:15, Northeast Jones vs. Canton; Friday, 7 and 8:15, semi-finals; Saturday, 9:45, finals.

South Jones and Northeast Jones are from District 8, Morton and Canton, District 6, Magee and South Pike, District 7. District 6 is known as always having the best girls teams in the state and this year Canton defeated Morton for the District 6 championship.

Ladner scoring 12 points in the losing cause. The highly-favored and top-seeded Hawks proved they were the class of the district in Class A scoring 152 points to their opponents 112 in two games after drawing a bye in the first round.

East Central was North Central's first victim succumbing 82-63 in the semi-finals, coach Ladner using every man on the bench. Clyde Moran and Eddie Ladner shared scoring honors with 19 points each while Louie Ladner added 14 and Greg Shaw 13. Also seeing action were Glen Davis, Lloyd Anderson,

Tigerettes march Poplarville finals

When the smoke cleared last week's basketball action, Valena C. Jones' Tigerettes had stretched their winning streak to 22 against losses and they had earned a berth in the South Mississippi Conference Tournament semi-finals played last night at Poplarville. The finals scheduled for Saturday at site to be announced.

The Tigerettes edged their long-time rivals Poplarville 34-32 in the first game with Queen Starks leading the scoring with 18 points.

Saturday night at Wiggins, playing for their life in the SMAC Tournament, the Tigerettes defeated Beaumont 44-27 with Lorraine Hargett and Queen Starks leading the scoring with 13 points each followed by Kim Bell with 12 and Alice Lemay, 1. Pearl Walker and Barbara Hawkins held down Beaumont's scoring.

The finale was a see-saw affair, the lead changing hands frequently and although VJC was ahead 49-46 they wound up on the short end of a final tally of 72-53.

Next week is the annual SMAC north-south post season all-star game to be conducted this year in Valena C. Jones gym. During intermission members of the all-conference team and coaches of the year will receive trophies. No date for the game has been set but coach Willie Bradley said it probably will be on Thursday or Friday.

Bill Garrett is the kind of neighbor everybody wants

Bill Garrett is an installer repairman in Mississippi. A man everybody likes. Always cheerful. Has a laugh that makes you feel good. But it was no laughing matter last fall when Bill saw Mrs. Emily Owens stranded on a lonely stretch of road. A tire was flat. Bill stopped, fixed the tire and went on his way. He thought no more about the incident. A few days later we got a letter from Mr. Owens. He said Mrs. Owens had a heart condition and Bill's help really may have been a life-saver. The letter told us something else - and we already knew it. With telephone people like Bill, helpful service gets to be a way of life - on or off the job.

THE PROGRESS PROMOTERS

SOLUTION TO STREETS

WE RECOMMEND THAT THE CITY ADMINISTRATION CONTINUE TO REPAIR THE STREETS UNDER THE SAME PROGRAM CENTRAL AVENUE WAS PAVED, AS SHOWN BELOW:

THIS IMPROVEMENT COST $1.00 Per lineal foot (Source: Mayor Scaife at public meeting). Based on this, the 29 miles proposed to be paved with the bond issue would cost approximately:

$153,000

This type repair program would be in keeping with the amount deducted from the original sewerage program. There is no need for a MILLION DOLLAR bond issue that will cost the taxpayers approximately TWO MILLION DOLLARS when fully paid. In addition, the proposed bond issue will practically exhaust our legal limit for bonded indebtedness.

Our oversight

Sorry we neglected to congratulate Andre and Ed Arceneaux who really started the point-up campaign on the Beach. Their building looks most attractive and the rose garden will be blossoming soon.

Boiler bursts

Time to send some get well wishes. Hank Stockmann and Sister Alma were both admitted to Hancock General for treatment of burns received in a boiler explosion which occurred in SJA memorial hall on Friday night. The mishap occurred when they were hard at work on background effects for Friday night's ball.

Mrs. Mary Riggs spent several days at Hancock General last week and had daughter Mattie (Mrs. D.W.) North acting as night nurse. Mary Moran is now at her St. Joseph Street home after her trip to the local hospital. She was there five days undergoing treatment and the usual tests.

A very special happy birthday wish is on the way to Eddie Virgilio. Eddie was 39 again Feb. 18, and his daughter, Ida Mulon, and his granddaughter, Deborah, came over from New Orleans to aid him observe the big day.

New business

Now in Waveland is Gaston's Cafe, owned and operated by that eminent restaurateur, Gaston Moreau. Valena Henry, chef of much local note, is dishing up all sorts of good things to eat. It's located in the building which formerly housed the Miss. Belle Casino Shop.

That swinger Ramsey's group headed another party at Stella Weatherby's home on Saturday night, but all appeared in excellent shape to return to work on Monday.

Mattie (Mrs. D.W.) North is driving around in her brand new station wagon. Of course D.W. is allowed to drive it on very special occasions.

A nice wedding

Faintly blonde Jackie Kingston had former Echo employee Ray Kidd, who have gone steady almost since grammar school days, there wed at Our Lady of the Gulf Church on Saturday. It would be impossible to even try to begin to name the many guests, admiring Jackie in her beautifully made traditional white gown. Nola (Mrs. Nolan) Kingston, mother-of-the-bride, had been very much under the weather the week before the ceremony, but managed to look lovely in her beige outfit. Lorraine (Mrs. Ray) Kidd chose a most becoming shade of salmon pink.

Attendants' full length velvet gowns in rich winter hues fashioned as that of bride Donna Lusich, now Mrs. Gorry Holland, made their wedding one of the loveliest of the year at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church Saturday night. Donna's ivory velvet fitted frock was completely made by her mother, Mrs. Rufus Lusich as was her long bridal veil of Alencon lace which formed an extended train. Pat (Mrs. Larry) Smith's makron of honor dress was a rich burgundy shade. Corrie (Mrs. Don) Lusich's, deep green; Cathy Hughes', deep gold matching that of her junior maid, Patricia Smith. Karen Lusich wore pale green and tiny flower girl Alecia Smith, a full length empire blue velvet. Their hood-pieces were velvet rosettes in the same colors as their dresses with short veils of net. Food and drink were in abundance at the reception at the Jaycee Home and wedding guests continued to toast the newlyweds long after they had departed on their honeymoon.

Help!

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Marroy and their four children lost all their possessions when fire gutted their Waveland home Sunday morning. Mr. Marroy has been seriously ill and unable to work since May of '67 and the family desperately needs clothing and household goods. Betty (Mrs. Donald) Dorn and Janet (Mrs. Earl) Lohmer have volunteered to pick up any donations and see that they are delivered to the Marroy. Betty's phone number is 467-7263 and Janet's, 467-4423. Men's clothing in sizes 34 pants and 14 coats; women's 16 and one-half and children's sizes 12 and 7, girls', and 5 and 6 boys' are most needed. Also used washable appliances, furniture, bedding, etc., will be welcomed.

Gripe corner

We're forced once again to bring up the old subject of small children crawling about on bicycles. Every spring it's the same story. It's bad enough when the kids start all but take automatic vaco in daylight.
